

A HISTORY OF CHARING

Charing and District Local History Society is publishing a new history of Charing, researched, written and produced by Society members. It tells the story of Charing from prehistoric times to 1900, and also has chapters on the history of the church, archbishop's palace and historic houses of the parish. It is written in a well-informed but easily readable style, and is well-illustrated with over 100 maps, drawings and photographs.

The book will be published in November 2011, and is therefore ideal for Christmas presents!

The retail price will be £12, but if you order copies before 31 October 2011 on the form below the pre-publication price is £10. Those who order in advance will be given the option of picking up their orders in the village. If you wish copies to be posted please add £2.68 for 1-2 copies, for more copies please contact re postage cost.

Please make cheques payable to 'Charing and District Local History Society', and send to Sarah Pearson, Old School House, High Street, Charing TN27 0LS (01233-712772; Email: books@charinghistory.co.uk)
